INTRODUCING THE NETWORK

IN THE FAST LANE

Finally. Speedvision. It's 24 hours a day, 7 days a week of cars, boats, planes and motorcycles. A network dedicated to you and everyone who shares your passion for speed and the lifestyle that goes with it. Speedvision has it all. An exciting line-up of original programming. Authentic coverage of major events. The stars and the people who make it all happen. What's going on behind the scenes. The unique lifestyles. The latest industry and consumer news, history, instruction and the best tips for top performance.

The people at Speedvision share your passion. Our executives are legends in sports broadcasting. The producers are the best in the business. Our industry experts can show you great deals in the showrooms as well as the big deals in the boardrooms. The cameramen are specialists who know how to get you close to the action. How to put you right in the driver's seat. Cars, boats, planes and motorcycles are special worlds that deserve the dedicated treatment we give them.

Speedvision has all the elements that make the world of cars, boats, planes and motorcycles fascinating. We go beyond traditional race event programming. We give you industry news and information you can use. You can expect: rare historical footage as well as entertaining documentaries...the week's news in the automotive, marine, aviation and motorcycle industries, as well as the latest racing results of your favorite sports...celebrities and their private obsession for speed...how to find and restore vintage vehicles...high-performance tips from champions...up-to-date information on buying vehicles and accessories...and much, much more.

People with a passion for speed are a special breed. And you deserve a network that understands and delivers what you need. You deserve Speedvision.
